It is such an evil, that we look on the military despotisms of Europe, which take young men from their families or the streets for a term of years, and compel them to serve in the army, as comparative blessing. In the service they acquire habits of obedience to superiors, cleanliness, regularity, and order. THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN. Another Glorious Victory, Capt. W. E. Simms Elected.

Another election has passed, and we have the proud satisfaction of recording another glorious victory won by the Democracy and old-line Whigs of the Ashland District. We have before seen desperate party struggles here and elsewhere, but never anything to compare with the one that the interested Oper operates struggled from has just passed. Our opponents struggled from the day their candidate was placed upon the track with the energy of despair. They spared no effort. The old American party, when bound together by oaths and secret signs, never presented a more unbroken rank. From the Hon. Garrett Davis, down to the smallest corporal, they labored day and night. The tongue of malice was busy at its work, hate and vindictivenesss mixed and min-gled with their every effort to carry this district. They rejected legal Democratic voters, and admitted illegal Opposition voters. Our candidate was assailed, slandered, and villified, and yet, despite all their efforts, our gallant leader bore us through this contest triumphantly.

The triumph of Capt Simms in this district in the race that has just closed, we regard as one amongst the most brilliant victories that has ever been achieved in the State. No man ever struggled against a more united

No man ever struggled against a more united enemy. The Opposition party never before made such an effort to defeat our candidate. Yet he met them everywhere, and in every way, and "out of the State," and in every instance most gloriously and triumphantly met them; no gentleman in this district has ever made a more brilliant canvass than our distinguished townsman, Capt. Simms. His speeches upon the stump, for ability and power of logic, have excited the admiration and inspired the confidence of his friends everywhere throughout the district. He has labored with an energy and will that never failed in the hour of trial, and to-day stands forth when the dust and smoke of battle has passed, the honored representative of the Ashland district in the next Congress of the United States. Cleaned Out.

In the election just over, the Democrats of Kentucky have consummated a work which they commenced in 1857, and which they have been steadily, vigorously, and successfully prosecuting the State for so many years. That sterling gentleman, Jas. H Garrard, was first placed in Robt. Richardson, Superintendent of Public In-struction; James P. Bates, President Board of Internal Improvements, and that Garrard should continue to act as their Treasurer. Verily Frankfort will present a changed appearance with a Democratic Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and with all the State offices filled with Democrats! The change, we feel every assurance, will redound to the best interest of the people of Kentucky -Lou. Cour.

Three Days Later from Europe.-Arrival of the Persia.—The Trouble not yet over.—Another Enropean Conference.—Excitement in Italy Continues.—Non-Interference in England. The Conference between France and Austria was to assemble at Zurich in about a week. The discontent in regard to the terms of the peace is unabated, and the explanations of the Emperor Napoleon are not considered re-assur ing. The Sardinian representative to the Zurich Conference has not been named, and it is expected that none will be present; but that Sardinia, if pleased with the terms agreed upon, will acquiesce in the Austro-French arrangement in a separate article.

It is affirmed that Sardinia has signed nothing but the armistice, and is, consequently, in a normal state of war with Austria.

It is supposed that a European Conference will assemble after the adjournment of the Zurich Conference. The exhibitions of discontent in Italy at the terms of peace continued. The people of Tus-cany show a strong hostility to the return of the Grand Duke. The Provisional Government has directed a vote to be taken on the subject.

The English foreign policy had been under debate in the House of Commons. Mr. D'Israeli opposed all interference in the Peace Co Lord Palmerston and Lord John Russell thought that England might with propriety take part, but no course was determined upon. Lord Elchos gave notice of the introduction of a resolution against any interference by England.

Mr. Gladstane's proposed increase of the In-

As a proof of his moderation, he trust-ed that the peace would be enduring. The Paris Bourse closed flat and lower. Three per cent. rentes closed at 67f. 15c. The German Diet has agreed to restore the contingent and fortresses to a peace footing.

The following is from the Moniteur: "PALACE ST. CLOUD, July 21. "The diplomatic body having expressed a wish, through the organ of its President, His Excellency the Apostolic Nuncio of the Holy See, to be received by the Emperor, offer their cers of the household, had at his side the Minister of Foreign Affairs. Speaking in the name of the diplomatic body, the Nuncio addressed His Majesty as follows: 'Sire, the diplomatic body felt the want to offer your Majesty their heartfelt

The Emperor replied as follows: "Europe was in general so unjust towards me at the commencement of the war, that I was happy to be able to conclude peace as soon as the honor and interests of France were satisfied, and prove that it could not enter into my intentions to subvert Europe and provoke a general war. I hope now that all causes of dissent will vanish, and that the peace will be of a long duration. I thank the diplomatic body for their congratulations."

In reference to the annexation of the Duchies and Central Italy to Sardinia, Lord John Russell, in writing to the British Minister at Turin, under date of June 20, says that everything for the present must be considered as provisional, and the will of the peoole, the fortunes of war, and finally an European treaty; the last resort must settle the territorial arrangements and the right of sovereignty in Central Italy. This view, his Lordship states, is shared in by the French Government, and he infers that it is also with the views of Russia. A dispatch from Count Cavour in reply to one from Lord Malmesbury, to relieve the neutrality of Parma, complains unfriendly to the British Minister's communication.

Lord John Russell says that it is clear that the return of the exiled rulers of Tuscany, Modena, and Parma will be resisted by force, and if England can consent to appear in Congress, now is the time when her voice may be heard to advan-

In the House of Commons, on Thursday, Mr. Bright inveighed against the attacks upon the French Emperor, and consequently the French nation, which tended to plunge this country into a war. If he was in the position of Lord John Russell, he would try to emancipate himself from the old body traditions of the Foreign office. would approach France in a sensible, moral, and Chirstian spirit, and test the sincerity of this Government by proposing an alteration of the tariffs of the two countries in the interest of free trade. He believed if this offer was honestly made, not with diplomatic finesse, it would bring about a different state of things.

Lord John Russell said that he had seen with pain attempts made to awaken a feeling in this country against the sovereign people of France, which could only produce on their part a feeling of animosity against the people of this coun

He believed that the Emperor of the French has been a faithful ally to this country. then was the reason for making continually invectives against him? He believed, as far as he was concerned, that the Emperor has been anxious to get rid of protecting duties, as injurious to France, but it would not be prudent to give a handle to the Protectionist party in that country to charge him with sacrificing the interests of France to those of England.

On Friday, in reply to an inquiry by Mr. Pease, Lord Palmerston said that the formation of harbors of refuge on our coasts was an object great importance; but that the expense t would be incurred thereby would be about £4,000,000, so Her Majesty's government had no intention to propose a measure upon this subject at the

Nicholas County. On Monday the political struggle in this county was one of perfect desperation. Both parties worked with great zeal and energy. The Plug-Ugly bullies added to their usual weapon of war fare (the cudgel) the bowie-knife and pistol, and as a foretaste of what was to be done on Monday, the Plugs went by night to the farm of Andrew W. Banta, in the Head-Quarters precinct and literally cut in pieces two of his cows, whilst he was actively engaged in trying to arouse and animate his party for the contest. Mr. Banta is a gentleman of fine character and courage, and neither he nor his party were to be intimidated. At the polls of that precinct were many desperate

At the Blue Licks the struggle was commenced by the Plug bullies forcing a timid voter from the polls. More than fifty men were engaged. The Plugs, led on by a Know-Nothing Sheriff, overpowered the Democrats. Fury and desperation ruled the town. Soon the Plugs got up a fight, which was marked by the most brutal assassina-tion that ever disgraced the soil of Nicholas. This fight was commenced by John and William Abbott on young Delany, who was soon brought down by the bludgeon of Wm. Abbott. The father of Delany, running to the rescue of his son, received two mortal stabs from the Abbotts. He turned from the struggle, with no weapons, and not able to do harm to a child, when John Abbott approached him, and with a large bowie-knife deliberately cut him eight or ten times on the head, till the poor unfortunate victim of Plug-Ugly vengeance fell prostrate at the feet of a brutal and cowardly assassin. The deceased was a harmless Irishman, who had long resided on a little farm purchased by the industry of his earlier years. He leaves many warm friends to lament so sad a fate of a man whose heart was ever warmed by many generous sympathies. Thus is added another name to the long list of victims of Plug-Ugly butchers. But to the credit of the Nicholas Democracy be it said, that, like true and gallant soldiers, their cry for victory arose above the tumult of battle, and when the contest was over, they had added 276 majority for the gallant Simms, whilst the mortifying defeat of the Opposition was made the more miliating because of being stained with innocent blood.

THE VESPER GAS

AIR LIGHT, The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World!

The Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety, and simplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixture is so simple that it is not able to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from odor while burning, as, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most in-

State of Kentucky, County of Whitley.

I, JAMES CUTBIRTH, Jailer of Whitley county, Ky., do certify that on the 14th day of June, 1859, a mulatto boy was delivered to me by order of L. D. The owner of said slave is hereby notified to come and prove said slave to be his, and to pay all costs, fees, and rewards allowed by law, and if this is not done within six months from this date, said slave will be sold, and the proceeds of said sale disbosed of as required by Given under my hand, this loth day of June, 1858.

Description.

Said boy is five feet 8½ inches high, weighs 141 pounds; slender built; of a dark mulatto or copper color; the end of his middle toe on his left foot has been cut or mashed off. Says his name is William, that he belongs to John Coleman, a wholesale and retail merchant living on Greene street, in the city of Charleston, South Carolina.

THERE was committed to my charge, February 13, 1859, as Jailer of Carroll county, Ky..a runaway slave off the steamer Glendale, who calls himself JOE. and claims to be the property of Mary Bolden, of Shelby county, sixteen miles from Memphis, Tennessee. The boy is, I would judge, between 22 or 23 years of age, and about 5 feet 6 or 7 niches in height; rather likely than otherwise; of a copper color; he is quick in speaking when spoken to; he has a strong voice; he has a scar over his left eye, and has lost the fore-finger of his left hand; he has also a sear on his left hand, caused by a shot. His ancle is much chafed with a manacle which he has worn. High, white man's nose; his back shows marks of the lash. Coating, when received, a part of an old black blanket coat, pants of casinet, striped, and with red specks; some small portion of a domestic shirt; no hat; common shoes.

most valuable inventions of the age. They use a Shuttle, making the Lock Stitch on both sides of the cloth alike, which cannot be unrabled out.

They are all made with the highest mechanical skill, and all warranted to work well on all kinds of goods, from the Lightest Fabric to Heavy Leather. In particular, we would call the attention of all to our new Family Sewing Machine. It has been manufactured expressly for family use, and has met with favor from all. It is so simplified as to render it almost impossible to get out of order, or derange its operations; indeed it is so simple as to astonish one, that so small a piece of mechanism will sew.

Below, we give a description of the different styles of the Weed Patent.

Machine runs easier than any machine now in use. Price, $100.

No. 4. This Machine has a long arm, to accommodate large work. It runs at a high rate of speed, runs easily, and is, without adoubt, the best Machine for Tailors' use, ever offered to the public. It is peculiarly fitted for plantation work, as it is very simple set substantial and durable, with but little liability to get out of order. Price, $120.

No. 5. This is a new and cheaper style, and a general favorite for Family, Light Leather, and a great variety of work. It has been gotten up with reference to furnishing a strong and durable, yet light and tasty Machine, at a less price than either of the above. It runs very easy, rapidly, and is pronounced the best Machine now in market, for $80.

No. 6. This is a Machine got up on an entirely new principle, different from anything ever before offered to the public, and we confidently assert that for family use it has not an equal. It is very light and tasty, runs very rapidly, is almost noiseless in its operation and uses a straight needle. It is so arranged and uses a straight needle. It is so arranged as to be utterly impossible for it to miss stitches. It has a tension on both sides, and carries a large supply of thread on the under spool. The motions are gained by two small cranks that run without perceptible noise. The two threads are worked in such a manner as never to both pull at the same time, and consequently little liable to break. The seam is very elastic, and the thread does not break in washing. It will do coarse work better than any cheap machine now in market, as it uses silk, cotton, or linen, with equal facility. Price $50.

These stoves are constructed with two separate WATER CHAMBERS, which completely surround, and always present a cold surface to the fire; rendering the burning out of the plates impossible, therefore, for durability are unequaled.

In addition to the above qualifications, the economy of the invention deserves especial attention, the consumption of fuel being fifty per cent. less than is required for ordinary cooking stoves which will not accomplish more than one-third of the amount of work.

It is impossible to give an adequate description of these Stoves. To be appreciated they have to be seen at my store, together with a large assortment of Cooking and Heating Stoves of all kinds.
